THE BREVITY BASKET.
Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

A colored girl was yesterday committed to jail for thirty days, charged with making threats of personal violence to her mother, Maria Dorsey.

Two cases of larceny against Lucinda A.
Brown, colored, was yesterday dismissed in the police court. Lucinda carried a poodle dog into court.

Daniel A. Brice, a driver for Augustus Dutton, French baker, was yesterday held for the action of the grand jury upon the charge of embezzling $2.50 from his employer.

Officer N. H. Cole was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Matthew A. Cherry, colored, who says that Cole assaulted him while he was riding a bicycle Tuesday on Pennsylvania avenue.

A case against a young white girl named Sarah Popers, charged with beating a boy named Ben Schineberg because his father would not marry her, was yesterday dismissed in the police court.

Charles Herbert, the artilleryman whose aria was shot off some time ago while firing a salute in honor of the Mexican veterans, has at the solicitation of Gen. Rosecrans been appointed a night watchman by Col. Rockwell.

Samuel M. Plumley, of 408 H street, swore out a warrant yesterday against Thomas I.
Loran, a claim agent, charging him with the embezzlement of $700, which he received upon a promissory note from George H. Moore, of West Virginia.

The Troque's Bass Ball club have reorganized their line for the coming season. The nine is composed of the following players: E. Ober, c.; J. Sprigman, p.; P. Foster, 1b.; A.
Perkins, 2b.; M. Bray, s.; G. White, 3b.; J.
Klam, l.f.; H. Lord, c.f.; G. Francis, r.f.

ALEXANDRIA SHIPYARDS.
Prospects That the Sleepy Old City Will Again Have Active Life.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 21.—After a "Nap Van Kinkle" sleep of twenty years this industrial city has awakened to the reality that a live man still exists, and that a warlike shipyard for the construction of iron or steel or wooden vessels of the largest tonnage will before long be in full operation. This great acquisition to southern waters is but little appreciated at present, but before the year has passed it predict bright and bustling times for this old city, and the people of Virginia can never sufficiently repay our Yankee cousins for having started the boom which is destined to revive shipbuilding and bring trade and commerce to this once wealthy and thriving city.

Should this yard be a success—and there is every reason to believe it is—there would be economy to close both the Washington and Norfolk navy yards, as far as building vessels is concerned, as the work from track to launch could be as thoroughly done here by cheaper than at government yards, and I feel sure that neither John Roach nor "Obelisk Gorringe" can plan and build an ocean-going iron steamer with as good lines or as great speed as can be constructed here by the eye of Capt. G. C. Goss, of Maine, who is the able president of this company and a man well known all over the eastern states for integrity and energy.

To Mr. E. D. Emerson, of Boston, however, the secretary and treasurer of the company, more than to any one else, belongs the credit of forming and establishing on a firm basis this much needed acquisition to southern trade, and only those who know him can appreciate the indomitable will displayed by him in bringing order out of chaos, and conquering both friend and foe by overcoming each and every obstacle set in his path.

In my next letter I will give your readers a description of the yard and its many facilities and its superiority over 100 per cent. of the other government and private yards in the country, as well as other details of interest to the scientific men of this continent.
D. E. P.

Colored Preachers Visit the President.
Two hundred delegates to the African M.
E. General conference, now in session in Baltimore, headed by Bishops Wayman, Campbell, Dickerson, Ward, and Payne, arrived in Washington yesterday. They visited the white house and the government buildings. At the white house Bishop Wayman, in addressing the President, said that the delegates present represented about 400,000 members of the African M. E. Church, many of these present had never been at the seat of government, and all were desirous of paying their respects to the chief magistrate.

Bishop Turner, of Georgia, said he desired to extend the thanks of the colored race to the President for the interest which he had manifested in their welfare.

The President said he was glad to greet so large a number of distinguished representatives of the African M. E. Church, and thanked them for their visit. He remarked sometime in conversation with the bishops and Rev. Mr. Smith, over 100 years of age, who was the founder of the first colored church in Washington.

Married Life Was Too Exciting.
Justice Cox yesterday administered balm to one more wounded heart by granting Emily F. Scott divorce from the bonds of matrimony with Franklin Scott, and permission to assume her maiden name of Emily F. Walker. The parties to the suit were married in Georgetown, D. C., Aug. 19, 1862, and lived together for eleven years when, on Oct. 15, 1873, and without cause, as the alleges, upon her part, he drove her from home, and she was compelled to seek shelter with a sister in Alexandria, Va. A few days after he paid that ancient city a visit, and while she was and about the time he was killed said "he would look on her corpse before the coming night." The timely arrival of officers probably prevented the threat from being carried into execution, and his incarceration in jail for six months for failure to give bond to keep the peace toward her allowed him time for reflection and to change his mind. Upon his being released he left this section of the country, and the last heard of him he was tramping through the state of Colorado.

Fish Destroyed by Tar.
The attention of the commissioners having been called to the tar and refuse matter flowing from the Washington gas company's works into the Potomac, and its deleterious influences upon the fish industries, letters were addressed to Prof. Baird, the United States fish commissioner and to the health officer of the District.

Yesterday morning a communication was received by the commissioners from Prof.
Baird, in which he says that the measure of protection furnished by the law which has just passed the house will be greatly diminished if the discharges in question be continued.

Permits to Wed.
The following marriage licenses have been issued: Geo. W. Hunter and Lucy Sinclair, both of Prince William county, Va.; Geo. I.
Denner and Annie E. Moddinan, Henry F.
Arnold and Molly Huppin, Danan O'Donnman and Lucy F. Merrill, Elmer E. Simpson and Libbie G. Brown, Philip Jackson and Ellen Peterson, A. W. Payne, of Fauquier county, Va., and Jeannette A. Welch, of Frederick county, Md.; John B. Christopher and Della Netherly, both of Baltimore, Md.; Perry R. Miller and Cicelia Baldwin, and John H. Parker and Ruben E. Johnson.
